

Star Chamber of Commerce
Chili Cook-Off
PIE-EATING CONTEST RULES AND WAIVER

The pie-eating contest will take place at 2:00 PM on Saturday, October 3th at the Star Riverhouse (960 S. Main St, Star). First Place winners of each category will receive a Steve’s Auto 2026 Pie-Eating Contest medal. Space is limited to six contestants per category (Children 8–12, Teens 13–17, Adults 18+), and check-in at 1:45 PM is required.

CONTEST RULES

- No hands may be used and no one may assist you.
- Each group will go on stage and start at the same time. You will have 3 minutes to eat as much of your pie as possible. All pies will be the same size and flavor.
- The judge will compare pies and award first place to the contestant who has eaten the most.
- In the event of a tie, an assistant and the audience will help the judge declare the winner.
- Vomiting will cause disqualification. Contestants must stay at the table until judging is complete.
- A completed registration form and waiver must be signed by all contestants prior to the start of the contest.
- Children under 18 must have a parent or guardian present and the guardian’s signature on the waiver.
- CHECK IN AT 1:45 PM at the Info/Chamber booth. Failure to check in will forfeit your entry.
